

Section 2 Scenario Cards

Note to instructor: For this activity, cut out these scenario cards, which describe situations drivers may encounter.

1. A traffic signal is about to turn green for you, the driver. A pedestrian begins to cross the street. He is listening to an iPod. What should you do?	2. A traffic signal is about to turn green for you, the driver. There are lots of pedestrians at the intersection. What should you do?
3. You are turning right on a red traffic signal. A pedestrian starts to walk across the street. She is talking on a cell phone. What should you do?	4. You are driving down the street. The street has lots of parked cars. What should you do?
5. You are driving in the city at night. What should you do?	6. You are driving in the rain at night. What should you do?
7. You are backing out of a parking space. What should you do?	8. You are passing a bicyclist. What should you do?
9. You are backing out of a driveway into a suburban street. What should you do?	